HUMC 2.0(22)

A Prayerful Time of Dreaming, Visioning and Planning for our Post-Pandemic Church

In December, Pastor Randy will begin hosting a series of listening sessions - In-person and via Zoom. These conversations are designed to continue through the first quarter of 2022, informing a season of dreaming and visioning together as we consider the next chapter at HUMC. A vision for our post-pandemic church will be shared on Easter Sunday, April 17th. These listening sessions will seek to build on the following five foundational questions -

- 1 - What is the core identity of HUMC?
- 2 - What former or current practices are essential to the core identity of HUMC?
- 3 - What are the areas in need of refreshing, renewing, relinquishing or revisioning?
- 4 - What behaviors best contribute to the overall health and vitality of the church?
- 5 - What is the Holy Spirit leading us to do?

Here are the scheduled listening sessions for December -

- Monday, December 6th - 5:30pm (In-Person)
- Wednesday, December 8th - 11:00am (In-Person)
- Thursday, December 9th - 5:30pm (Zoom)
- Monday, December 13th - 5:30pm (In-Person)
- Wednesday, December 15th - 11:00am (In-Person)
- Thursday, December 16th - 5:30pm (Zoom)

Pastor Randy is also happy to schedule one-on-one conversations. If you'd like to meet individually, or if you wish to receive a Zoom invitation, please email Pastor Randy at randyhumc@icloud.com. Come, let us pray and dream together.
