HUMC 2.0(22)
A Prayerful Time of Dreaming, Visioning and Planning for our Post-Pandemic Church

We have entered into a season of prayerful discernment in preparation for the next chapter of our shared life and ministry in the post-pandemic world. As part of this process, Pastor Randy hosted a series of listening sessions, both in-person and via Zoom, in December. These conversations are designed to continue through the first quarter of 2022, informing a season of dreaming and visioning together as we consider the next chapter at HUMC. A vision for our post-pandemic church will be shared on Easter Sunday, April 17th.

These listening sessions will build on the following five foundational questions -

- 1 - What is the core identity of HUMC?
- 2 - What former or current practices are essential to the core identity of HUMC?
- 3 - What are the areas in need of refreshing, renewing, relinquishing or revisioning?
- 4 - What behaviors best contribute to the overall health and vitality of the church?
- 5 - What is the Holy Spirit leading us to do?

Pastor Randy is also happy to schedule one-on-one conversations. If you'd like to meet individually, or if you wish to receive a Zoom invitation, please email Pastor Randy at randyhumc@icloud.com.
